Dedicated To James Ingersoll

We want to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. James Ingersoll. Mr. Ingersoll was one of the best principals of Fremont. He cared about students, parents and teachers. He retired in October of 1984 after seven and one-half years at Fremont. We wish him well.

Mr. Ingersoll completed his B.S. in June, 1949, and his M.A. in August, 1952. He started his teaching career in Berkeley, California, as a classroom teacher. He began his career in the Oxnard School District in September, 1954, as a principal at Haydock School. He was also a principal at Kamala, McKinna, Juanita, and Rose Avenue Schools. He became the principal at Fremont Intermediate School in 1977, and remained there until his retirement.

Mr. Ingersoll worked on various committees in the district. He has been an active member of the Oxnard Optimist Club and also of the Association of California School Administrators. He works on antique clocks and is very handy around the house.

We feel privileged to dedicate this 1985 Yearbook to James Ingersoll.

Student Council presented this cake to Mr. Ingersoll.

A black and white yearbook page featuring a grid of 48 student portraits. The grid is 8 rows by 6 columns. The first seven rows contain individual portraits of students. The eighth row is partially obscured by a large, dark, out-of-focus image of a student, likely a senior, who is the focus of the page.

Lunch time at Fremont was a good relaxation time for everyone. Volleyball and basketball tournaments were organized. Teams were formed through physical education classes. Many students participated. Most students like to visit with their friends during lunch time.

Dances

Our jammin' D.J.

Getting down

Ghosts come out at night

We partied like it was 1999

Fremont had many great dances. Some of them were at night like the Halloween, Christmas, and Valentine dances. The rest were after school. We had dances for all kinds of occasions aside from holidays, such as a Short People's Dance, Back to School Dance, and a Yearbook Signing Dance.

Let's go crazy

Just waiting around

Fremont Musicians

The Fremont band did many things during the year. They marched in the Oxnard Christmas Parade, played during the Oxnard Halftime, presented a Christmas Concert, went to the Agoura Festival, went to a festival at Rio Mesa, and marched in the Harbor Day parade. In addition, as seen in the picture at the bottom right, they worked hard every day in class

Fremont Students Helped Ethiopians

Teachers gave money too

Board President gives plaque to Student Body representative

Student collage depicts famine

Students contributed more than $1,500

Money came from all classes

Yearbook Committee

The yearbook committee spent hours preparing the 1984-85 yearbook. At the top and the bottom they are shown at work. The center picture shows the staff. Top row Gloria Chavez, Heather Kalstrom, Vanessa Sims. Middle row: Mrs Carter, Tiffany Bailey, Jeima Patacsil, Wanda Duchai, Ms Flores. Front row: Mike Hatch, David Aguirre, John Hedstrom. Not pictured: Tiffiny Kirby and Michiko Beppu
